

INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR ENVIRONMENTAL PHILOSOPHY
at the
American Philosophical Association, Eastern Division
December 27-28, 2009
New York Marriott Marquis, New York, NY

SUNDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 27, 2009
GROUP SESSION I 6:30–9:30 P.M.

GI-2. International Association for Environmental Philosophy

Moderator: Steven Vogel (Denison University)

“Crisis and Event: Two Models of Ecological Critique,” Jared Hibbard-Swanson
(Pennsylvania State University)

“Liminal Spaces and the Ethics of Shaping Place,” Craig DeLancey (SUNY Oswego)

“Race, Place and Waste: Discriminatory Environmentalism and the Politics of Waste Disposal,” Mark Mysak (University of North Texas)

“Multinatural Mashups and a New Environmentalism,” Randy Honold (DePaul University)

MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 28, 2009
GROUP SESSION VI 7:30–10:30 P.M.

GVI-4. International Association for Environmental Philosophy

Moderator: Jim Hatley (Salisbury University)

“Introducing Goethe’s Delicate Empiricism as an Environmental Philosophy,” Bill
Bywater (Allegheny University)

“Thoreau’s Polyvalent Concept of Nature,” Lyman Mower (Syracuse University)

“The Instinctual Structure of the Enviroing World,” Adam Konopka (Fordham University)

“The Deep Ecological Self,” Lisa Kretz (Dalhousie University-Nova Scotia)