

2005 Joint ISEE/IAEP Conference Program

Tuesday, May 31

7-9 pm:

Environmental Virtue Ethics:

Phil Cafaro (Colorado State University), "Gluttony, Arrogance, Greed, and Apathy: An Exploration of Environmental Vice"

Holmes Rolston III (Colorado State University), "Environmental Virtue Ethics: Half the Truth but Dangerous as a Whole"

Ronald Sandler (Northeastern University), "Introduction: Environmental Virtue Ethics"

Wednesday, June 1

9-10 am:

Thomas Nail (Oregon), "Merleau Ponty and the Metaphysics of Virtual Reality: Flesh or Nature Machine?"
Comments by Carl Mitcham (Colorado School of Mines)

10:15-11:15 am

Petra Andersson (Goteborg, Sweden), "Is Genetic Engineering Unnatural?"
Comments by Adam Briggie (Colorado)

11:30 am -1 pm

Aristotle, Foster, and Katz on Environmental Ethics

Sarah Kenehan (Tennessee), "Reconsidering Foster's Aristotelian Environmental Ethic"

Keith Bustos (Tennessee), "The Nature of Artifacts: An Aristotelian Response to Katz"

Comments by Ralph Acampora (Hofstra)

7-9 pm

Environmental Philosophy and Public Policy

Robert Frodeman (North Texas)

Eugene Hargrove (North Texas)

Dale Jamieson (New York University)

Thursday, June 2

9-10 am

Paul Moriarty (Longwood State), "Nature Naturalized: A Darwinian Defense of the Nature/Culture Distinction"

Comments by Darren Domsy (Auburn)

10:15-11:15 am

Elisa Aaltola (Turku, Finland), "Personhood and Animals: Three Approaches"

Comments by Marc Bekoff (Biology, Colorado)

11:30 am -1 pm

Normativity in Environmental Ethics

Avram Hiller (North Carolina), "A Quasi-Realist Environmental Ethic"

Vicki Weafer (Columbia), "A Biological Critique of Natural Normativity"
Comments by Katie McShane (North Carolina State)

Friday, June 3

9-10 am

William Throop & Rebecca Purdom (Green Mountain College), "Wilderness Restoration: The Paradox of Public Participation"
Comments by Amy Knisley (Colby-Sawyer)

10:15-11:15 am

Ben Hale (NYU), "Crossing the Property Line"
Comments by Sandy Askland (ASU)

11:30 am - 1 pm

Environmental Aesthetics:

Ned Hettinger (College of Charleston), "Objectivity in Environmental Aesthetics and Environmental Protection"

Jason Simus (North Texas), "Aesthetic Implications of the New Paradigm in Ecology"
Comments by Dan Sturgis (Colorado)