The International Association for Environmental Philosophy (IAEP) invites paper proposals in the form of 500-600 word abstracts. Proposals for either individual papers or sessions organized around a specific topic (with not more than three presenters) will be considered.

The deadline for submission of abstracts is May 13, 2016. Notice of selection will arrive by early June. Note that all presenters must be members of IAEP at the time of the conference..

Please send proposals by email to IAEP Secretary Ladelle McWhorter at IAEPsecretary@gmail.com. Proposals are chosen through an anonymous review process. The body of the email should include detailed contact information (including physical and electronic addresses as well as academic affiliation) of the author(s). Then in an attachment to the email please submit a 500-600 word (single-spaced) proposal in Word format without any identifying information as to the author(s). In the case of panel proposals, a description of the theme of the panel should be included as well as proposals for each of the papers in the panel. Please note that no audio-visual equipment will be available for presentations at the conference.

The International Association for Environmental Philosophy offers a forum for the philosophical discussion of our relation to the natural environment. Embracing a broad understanding of environmental philosophy, IAEP encourages not only discussions of environmental ethics, but of environmental aesthetics, ontology, theology, the philosophy of science, political philosophy, ecofeminism, and the philosophy of technology. IAEP also welcomes a diversity of approaches to these issues, including those inspired by Continental philosophy, the history of philosophy, and the traditions of American philosophy.

Membership in IAEP is open to everyone. For information about joining IAEP or subscribing to the journal Environmental Philosophy, please visit our website <http://www.environmentalphilosophy.org>
